

Please do not allow local radio networks to have influence on XM. I really enjoy XM Satellite radio and all the features they provide. XM is almost commercial free because it is a pay service and it is my choice to subscribe. The local channels are free to listen to but they are littered with commercial advertisements that I don't care to listen to. Why should I be forced to listen to anything? I feel it is my right to choose their service.